Programme Features

In collaboration with Edinburgh Napier University (ENU) , the School of Continuing Education (SCE) of Hong Kong Baptist University (HKBU) offers the newly launched 1-year part-time "Bachelor of Arts in Human Resource Management with Organisational Psychology" programme. Following a challenging international curriculum, the programme does not only focus on theories and concepts, but also reinforces understanding through a wide range of up-to-date case studies from across the globe. It aspires to produce graduates with an international perspective in addition to the necessary knowledge and skills required by the industry in the 21st century, providing a strong foundation for a successful career in human resource management within different sectors.

The programme also aims to:

- Provide students with the knowledge and skills of Human Resource Management, drawing on theoretical, practical and business focused perspectives.
- Enable students to more fully understand the social and psychological processes operating in organisations and to develop ways of improving them through the application of specialist Human Resource Management processes.
- Enhance students' credibility and impact in the workplace by equipping them with expertise in key areas of organisational behaviour and management of individuals at work.
